COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The selectmen had several people into their meeting last Monday night to discuss various topics. The first item on the agenda was a request for repair of a road on the east side of Bird Hill. The property owner agreed if the Town would maintain the road for summer use he would be satisfied.

Representatives of the Fire Department reported unforeseen problems encountered trying to install a dry hydrant at a location in Alder River. They felt the project would be too expensive to undertake.

The Bethel Rifle Guards reported they could obtain liability insurance for their activities.

It was recommended that a recreation committee be established. This would have to be acted upon at a town meeting.

Carroll Verrill presented a proposal for his use of the airport for aircraft maintenance and flight instruction. No action was taken until the proposal can be studied.

The 1975 tax rate was established at $39.00 per $1,000 valuation.

GOULD ACADEMY OPENS ITS 140th YEAR

Gould Academy opened its 140th year as a coeducational preparatory school in Bethel on Monday with an enrollment of 186 students. They come this year from all over the world with six students from France, five from Japan, three from Germany, two from Hong Kong, and one each from Mexico, the Philippines, and Venezuela. Many students are from the New England area and 63 are from Maine.

About 90 students arrived in Bethel on Sept. 2 for pre-season soccer training or for a backpacking and canoeing program designed to introduce new students to the splendid geographical setting in which Gould is located.

Gould will compete interscholastically this fall in soccer, cross country, and field hockey. Students may also elect to participate in the "Gould Outdoors" program which is modeled after the national Outward Bound School. The Gould program will develop individual skills in drownproofing, rock climbing, orienteering, and first aid, as well as performing service projects such as maintaining Gould Academy's 13 mile section of the Appalachian Trail.

Approximately 30 visiting scholars, lecturers, and performers will visit Gould this year in the Academy's lecture series, beginning on Sept. 23-24 with Dr. Patricia Schiller, executive director of the American Association of Sex Educators and Counselors. Other visitors who will be on campus during the fall are the Maine State Ballet Company, the Monmouth Theatre, classical guitarist Alfred Street, the Portland Symphony Brass Ensemble, and the Celebration Mime Theater.

The campus facilities were busy throughout the summer with, for the 29th year, a human development program run by the National Training Laboratories of Washington, D. C., and, for the fourth year, the pre-season training camp for the Chelsea, Mass., high school football team. Gould also offered a summer school program of intensive English language and American history study for students from abroad.

SPECIAL SESSION OF S. A. D. #44 DIRECTORS HELD AT TELSTAR

A special meeting of the M. S. A. D. #44 board of directors was held at the Telstar Auditorium on Monday evening, Sept. 8.

In an extended citizens' portion of the meeting, comments from the audience ranged from further discussion on discipline and attendance to the relative harmfulness of various controlled narcotics, together with questions on the effectivenes of the current day policies at the high school.

Christen Angevine of Bethel suggested that a committee be formed to consist of one board member to serve as chairman, two members from each town in the district, two representatives from the teacher association and two members from the student council. In Mr. Angevine's proposal two meetings of the special committee could be held each month with at least one meeting being held in each town of the district and a philosophy and behavior code to be written and presented at a district meeting for acceptance or rejection.

In response to a question from the audience, Brian Flynn, Telstar principal, commented on the current high school schedule which has seven recitation periods each day, a reduction from eight periods a year ago. It is believed that the seven period day, coupled with a requirement that each student carry an academic load of five subjects, would lessen the number of students with "free time", a prime concern of several in the district.

Oxford County Sheriff Alton Howe was present and made comments on the current drug laws and changes that would be evident when the revised Maine Criminal Code is effective on March 1, 1976. He made suggestions of how he believed the current S. A. D. 44 drug policy could

Greenwood City —

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

When we see the asters and golden rod blooming beside the road and leaves beginning to turn; when there is coolness of September evenings and the fox barks on the hillside; when the owl speaks from the woodland, and the crows are restless and full of noise we survey the troubled world and realize that those ancient-ordained forces still govern our flowering, fruiting earth.

When looking to the heavens on a clear night or watching the golden glow of a sunset or the sparkling lights of your neighbors across the valley; when the moon sails serenely among the stars, again one fills his heart with reassurance and confidence that a better man-regulated world will come.

On one of these beautiful days lift your eyes to the hills, and open your heart to their message. This is when discords and entanglements will fall into proper perspective. I always find it that way and doubly so this September. Why dwell on only the mundane things of life?

As I walked today, the brightest color that I noticed was the woodbine. A few more days and it will begin to flame in the woods and along the rivers. One of the finest scarlets of nature comes with this vine. It has a habit of climbing to the top of a dead tree or a pole. It can be seen at a far distance and no matter how many Septembers you have seen it you stop to admire its beauty. Maybe it doesn't rival the maple which "shows off" a little later. Vine just doesn't wait to celebrate. It's here right now!

If your heart is in tune, and I'm so happy that mine is, and you seek an upland road until you reach the height of land as I did you can look across the valley. The distant mountains rise, blue-green and steadfast against the blue sky. I love nature so I am never lonesome when alone. In the rush and turmoil of daily living I never forget the peace that is waiting nearby...on a quiet upland road.

Now the fields and meadows bring us a contrast to spring colors. Then we had the weaker shades of yellows, whites, blues. Now the purples are a showy mass; thistles, prickly with stout stems and color, New England asters; ironweed, sometimes mistaken for the aster when it lifts its massed heads to the sun and adds its deep purple hues to the color-pageant of the early fall.

Following the old road once again down the hillside there are many changes. The season flows like a river; August becomes September and with it the equinox and autumn. The hill looks down; a certainty itself, and I'm ever grateful that I can AGAIN walk its roads and find its tranquility.

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT HOLD MEETINGS

The first fall meetings of Jackson-Silver Post and Unit #68 were held Thursday night with the Commander and President, Mr. and Mrs. Lovejoy, presiding, and both meetings were opened in form.

The Post charter was draped in memory of Past Commander Lester Bickford who passed away this week. Eleven members attended his services at Newport. A sympathy card was signed for the family. The Post and Unit each voted $10.00 for the Memorial Fund at Telstar Regional High School in his name.

The Legion boys voted $10 for the Veterans Memorial Cemetery Chapel Fund in Memory of Past National Vice Commander Maurice Parisien, who passed away upon his return from National Convention, Aug. 25.

Athletic Officer Leland Dunham reported that the Post's baseball team was outstanding this year, coming in second in Zone II, with 15 boys participating. The Post treated them to a steak dinner July 19, on their way home from Orono.

The ladies decided on Nov. 15 for the reception for District Vice President Sylvia Dunham; a notice to be sent to the Pine Tree News.

The Cummings gave brief reports on National Convention in Minneapolis. Fannie was an alternate and her card got them in to hear President Ford as only card holders were admitted. The new National Auxiliary President is Lutys Schanel of Rhode Island. Her theme is "All Hands on Deck. Anchors Aweigh. 111% in '76."

The Togus Carnival is Sept. 13. Workers requested to be on the grounds by 9:30 a. m. Midway opens 1:30 p. m.

Three Legionnaires and their wives attended the Oxford County Council meeting in Bethel, Aug. 19, the Lovejoys, the Smiths and the Dunhams.

MAINE'S MINIMUM WAGE TO BE $2.30 PER HOUR OCT. 1

Maine's minimum wage will increase to $2.30 per hour on Oct. 1, 1975. This will cover all employees presently subject to the Maine minimum wage law and will include hospitals and nursing homes at the same $2.30 rate. Students who are less than 19 years of age may still be paid 75% of the regular rate, which will establish a minimum of $1.73 beginning Oct. 1. The base salary will be increased to $150 per week for those employed in the executive, administrative or professional capacity in order to be exempt from the Maine minimum wage and overtime provisions. To date, the minimum salary has been $100 weekly for these employees.

The hourly rate of $2.30 established by Maine law will be the same for all places of business currently subject to Maine law regardless as to the size of the business or number of employees. Many establishments are subject to both State and Federal wage standards, but the employer must pay whichever gives the higher benefit to the employees. This means that Oct. 1, Maine's minimum wage will be higher than the Federal rate. Maine was scheduled to be increased on the same date as the Federal rate next January, but the 107th Legislature amended the law making the effective date 90 days after adjournment. The Bureau warns that employers are required to pay back wages and overtime to their employees when violations are found and in past years, some employers have been required to pay large amounts in back wages because of error or lack of knowledge of the law.

Information pertaining to the State minimum law may be obtained by contacting the State Bureau of Labor and Industry at Augusta.

CARD OF THANKS

To my friends, relatives and neighbors, many many thanks for cards, flowers, calls, and other kindnesses during my stay in the hospital and since I have returned home. Your thoughfulness is greatly appreciated.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY HELP IN CANCER FIGHT

The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary have offered to help the American Cancer Society in a major cooperative effort to "wipe out cancer in our lifetime."

This dramatic fund raising drive by the American Legion, officially was kicked off by Legion National Commander James M. Wagonseller of Lancaster, Ohio, before some 6,000 delegates and alternates during the world's largest veterans groups' national convention in Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19, 1975.

Cancer is the common foe of all mankind and inflicts far greater casualties on the people of the United States, than all the wars, foreign and domestic, in which our country has been involved.

In this decade alone—10 million Americans under medical care, 6½ million new cases; 3½ million deaths; Cause?—CANCER.

Today, one of three Americans who contract cancer are being saved. But the research needed to reduce those odds is costly.

National Commander Wagonseller noted that in keeping with the historical concern of the Legion and its Auxiliary, not only for the welfare of its own membership, but for all Americans, this fund appeal came to life.

While the Legion and its Auxiliary represent a combined membership of nearly 4 million, all Americans are needed to fight this dreaded disease which reaches the dwellings of every hamlet and town, rich and poor, men and women, all races and nationalities, children as well as adults, and strikes with increasing frequency with advancing age.

This humanitarian effort by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary parallels both organizations' continued devotion and dedication to the welfare and best interests of all the people, including its own members.

Contributions are tax deductible and can be made to: "The American Legion for the account of the American Cancer Society" and be mailed to your nearest American Legion Post or, American Legion, P. O. Box 1055, Indianapolis, IN 46206

Miss Donna L. Tanguay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Tanguay of 8 Wilson Drive, Gorham, N. H., and Robert T. Folsom of Lyndeboro, N. H., son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Folsom, Sr., of West Bridgewater, Mass., were united in marriage by Rev. William Clark in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, Aug. 9, at the United Church of Lyndeborough.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of polyester organza accented with a mandarin collar, bouffant sleeves, and bodice of Cluny lace. The A-line skirt extended in a chapel length train. The illusion veil of fingertip length was also edged with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath encircled with lace. Baskets of red roses and baby's breath decorated the church.

Mrs. Sally Jekanowski of Gorham was matron of honor and the groom's brother, Arthur Folsom, of Whitman, Mass., was best man.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Donna Sulley, of Gorham, was attended by Arnold Byam. III, of Lyndeboro.

Sally's and Donna's gowns were of blue and white, and red and white calico print with empire waist, white eyelet aprons, and contrasting hats.

Baskets of daisies were carried by Miss Shelli Jakanowski, the bride's Godchild, and Miss Susan Folsom, daughter of the groom. They wore long blue and white, and red and white calico "Holly Hobby" dresses with white eyelet aprons and contrasting bonnets. Both were fashioned by the bride's mother. The groom's sons, John and Robert Folsom, were ringbearers.

The organist, Mrs. Calvin Hutchson, played the "Bridal Chorus" and traditional "Wedding March." Chuck Thornton and Miss Deanne Thornton sang "The Wedding Song" and "Color My World."

The reception of 85 guests followed in Citizen's Hall in Lyndeboro. Mrs. Barbara Boisvert of Lyndeboro prepared the lovely buffet. She also created the tiered wedding cake decorated with miniature yellow daisies.

Miss Debbie Tanguay, sister of the bride, circulated the guest book among those present.

Mr. Folsom is employed by Heating Specialties of N. H., Inc., of Nashua and Supply, Inc., of Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Folsom traveled to Cape Cod on their honeymoon. The couple will make their home on Old Temple Road in Lyndeboro, N. H.

30 Seconds WITH THE NAZARENE

Rev. Barbara Huse, Pastor
Bethel Church of the Nazarene

School days are here again. Oh yes, we can hear some say, "Oh joy, why bring that up?" School days ought to be the happiest of our lives. Does that sound like corn right off the cob to you? Think about it a little. What great privileges today. We certainly have come a long way from the little red school house which has become a museum these days! "Readin' and ritin' and rithmetic, chalk dust, standing in the corner, staying after school, lunch boxes, walking to school and of course recess! The best of all some thought! We hear about the school of hard knocks,—the school of experience—this school of thought and that school of thought! There is a sense in which we are going to school all our lives and we have many different teachers. Jesus is the greatest teacher of all and he says, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me;.... Matthew 11: 28-29.

Letters to the Editor

Sept. 8, 1975

Dear Citizen

You grow better and better. Your comment, letters and news are of interest and value.

You are a welcome Round Robin for local residents and far-flung readers.

We await your weekly appearance with pleasant anticipation.

Sixty years a faithful follower,
Pearl Ashby Tibbetts

Editor Brown:

I am sure many persons were overjoyed at the response to the unsigned, cruel letter two issues ago criticizing Mrs. Morgan's nature columns. I hope that person feels duly chastened and ashamed.

Too few people enjoy the beauty around them and even fewer people are as articulate as Mrs. Morgan in describing the beauty. Also, there is a great deal of history of Greenwood City interspersed thru-out her column that is very interesting and worthwhile reading.

I feel sure Mrs. Morgan must feel heartened by the letters from such loyal readers and will continue to describe her surroundings as only she can.

To the Editor:

Just a note about the folks that wrote about Mrs. Morgan's news column.

Yes, this lady does have a very fine talent for her nature writings.

These I have enjoyed for many weeks since subscribing to the paper. I really look forward to these each week.

Please Mrs. Morgan keep up the good work as it gives me a great inspiration to the real nature as I knew it when I lived up there as a young fellow.

Thanking you.

To the Editor:

Regarding the piece in the Citizen last week in regard to the piece about Shelburne, N. H.

My daughter, Mary Edith, and I are both active members of Winthrop Grange in Shelburne, N. H. She went to Bethel to see about putting posters up down there. A couple of places where she went told her they didn't put up posters or believe in doing it.

She put one on a bulletin board down there and Mr. Greenleaf put one in Citgo.

That is why I put a piece in the paper so the people of Bethel would know about it. I put news in the paper when I have some. If people won't tell me news I am unable to write to the paper.

Mrs. Clifford O. Cole

— Mrs. John Mills, Corres. —

The Ladies Circle will hold its September meeting Wednesday, the 17th, at the Sunday School room. The word for the month is power.

The Mt. Abram Fish and Game Association will hold its pot luck supper and business meeting on Thursday, Sept. 18, at 6:30 p. m. at the Town Hall.

The Community Club held a meeting at the Sunday School room, Tuesday, Sept. 9, with 12 members present. Mrs. Mary Stone became a member. Games were played, and refreshments were served by Elsie Bennett and Lora Noyes.

Callers over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Ford were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Abbott, Falmouth; Mrs. Hattie Curtis, West Sumner; Mr. and Mrs. William Probert, New Jersey; Rev. and Mrs. John Haverinen, South Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rhodes, Buckfield.

Mrs. Lydia Whitman, Miss Lulu Swan and Harlan Whitman of North Norway were Sunday callers at Lester Cole's and Muriel Cole's.

Mrs. Lillian Lapham was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cross on their farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Harmon, Sr., Norway, visited their daughter, Mrs. Helene Gordon, one day last week.

Many, many thanks to all who so generously contributed to our request for food to help feed the searchers of little Kurt Newton. Our newly organized Fireman's Auxiliary, realizing how hard the women in the Eustis and surrounding area were working, decided Thursday night to help. By telephone and door to door we asked for anything to be left at the fire hall Friday morning. Two women left for the campsite at one so to arrive before supper with a car loaded from the floor to top and the trunk. They arrived at four to find the women very thankful that anyone would come so far with so much. They unloaded then stayed to help serve a supper of beans, rolls, etc., stews, coffee and desserts to many searchers, both men and women. Leaving at seven they arrived back in Locke Mills at ten, very tired but gratified. Again, many thanks to all who helped.

CONSUMER PRICE INDEX HAS 1.1% RISE DURING JULY

The Consumer Price Index rose 1.1% in July, the U. S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics has reported. Price increases for meats, poultry, fresh fruits and vegetables, gasoline, and used cars accounted for about three-fourths of the July increase. The CPI was 162.3 (1967=100), 9.7% higher than a year ago.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, the CPI increased 1.2% in July. The July increase compares with a rise of 0.8% in June and an average monhly increase of about 0.5% in the first five months of this year.

The food index rose 1.7% in July, following an increase of 1.5% in June. In July, prices for fresh vegetables and poultry rose considerably more than in June. Pork prices continued to rise rapidly. Beef prices also rose but less than in May or June. Since April when price increases for these products began to accelerate, beef, pork, and poultry prices have risen almost 20%. Prices of dairy products increased noticeably for the first time this year, and egg prices moved up after declining in the two preceding months. Prices continued to decline for sugar and many other types of processed foods.

The index for commodities other than food increased 0.9% in July, compared with 0.5% in June. The July increase in the gasoline and motor oil index was 3.3%, slightly larger than in June. During the past four months, gasoline and motor oil prices have increased 8.6%. The increase in the fuel oil and coal index was 2.2%, considerably larger than in recent months.

Prices of used cars continued to rise sharply. In addition, the index for apparel commodities, which deceased slightly in the first six months of this year, moved up 0.7% in July. Price increases in July were larger than in recent months for other commodities such as toilet goods and housekeeping supplies. New car prices declined, the second decline in the last three months.

The services index rose 0.5% in July, somewhat less than the June increase of 0.7%. Charges for household services excluding rent rose 0.5% in July, half as much as in June. Charges for medical care services, however, rose 1.1%, considerably more than monthly increases this spring. Increases of 0.3% for rent, 0.5% for transportation services, and 0.4% for other services such as personal care, apparel, and recreational services were about the same as in recent months.

THIRD QUARTER PAYMENT DUE ON ESTIMATED TAX

Taxpayers who filed estimated tax on their 1975 income must pay the third quarter installment by Sept. 15.

"The provision in the law for taxpayers to pay estimated tax in four equal installments means that ¾ of the tax should be paid by Sept. 15. Taxpayers should file declaration-voucher 3 from the Form 1040-ES package," John J. Jennings, IRS District Director, said.

"Taxpayers whose anticipated income during 1975 has changed may have to file an amended declaration. There is space in the estimated tax package to compute an amended estimate," Mr. Jennings said.

For more detailed information, see Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," available free in the Augusta IRS District Office.

Taxpayers in the Augusta area can contact the IRS by calling 622-3761. Persons in outlying areas may call toll free 1-800-452-8750.

MESSALONSKEE TAKES TELSTAR INTO CAMP, 14-6

Bill Pullen sparked Messalonskee High with his hard running to a 14-6 Mountain Valley Conference win over Telstar in the opener for both teams on the loser's field, Saturday.

After an exchange of punts in the opening quarter, Messalonskee scored when Pullen went seven yards, capping a 39-yard drive at the six-minute mark. Pullen also rushed the two point conversion to make it 8-0.

Pullen did most of the ball-carrying on the drive, gaining 27 of the 39 yards.

Telstar scored its only touchdown late in the second period as running back Duffy Ellsworth plunged one yard. This capped a 58-yard march. The key play was a 16-yard pass play from Ellsworth to Alan Seames.

The Eagles marched 51 yards to score with only five seconds left before half time. Quarterback Flint Collier scored from one yard out. Again, Pullen was the workhorse with most of the yardage.

Pullen was the leading runner with 95 yards on 30 carries.

The summary:

Messalonskee	8	6	0	0	—14
Telstar	0	6	0	0	— 6

M--Pullen, seven, run (Pullen rush)

T—Ellsworth, one, run (rush failed).

TELSTAR J.V.S BLANK MESSALONSKEE 6-0 IN MONDAY GRID DUEL

Making up in some part for Saturday's varsity outcome, Telstar Jayvees shut out host Messalonskee of Oakland in fooball Monday. Greg Tyler's first period touchdown accounted for the only tally of a 6-0 contest. Tyler, a freshman who rushed for 78 yards in 13 attempts for the day, went 15 yards off tackle from his fullback position for the six-pointer.

The extra point kick was blocked.

Keying the paint job were Jack Taylor and Mike Rosenberg at the Telstar tackles and Larry Bennett, middle linebacker.

Available funds for this project have been expended and additional funds of approximately $4,000. are needed to complete the job. The D. O. T. is asking the town to appropriate two additional units of State Aid Funds ($1,066.) which will be matched by the State two to one, plus a 40% bonus on the joint fund, making a total of $4,477.20 to complete the project.

TELSTAR RUNNERS DOWN EAGLES, 17 - 46

Telstar's Rebels rambled in their first cross country meet of the year Saturday, a 17-46 home course victory over Messalonskee of Oakland. Eric Dombkowski was the winner in a time of 14 minutes, 30 seconds. The summary follows:

1. Dombkowski (T), 14:30; 2. Walker (T); 3. Bodwell (T); 4. Pierce (M); 5. Friel (T); 6. Shimamura (T); 7. Clukey (T); 8. Richardson (T); 9. M. Friel (T); 10. Osgood (T).

It would be necessary for the Town to pay the entire amount to the State D. O. T. at this time. All excepting $1,066., or $3,411.20 would be repaid to the Town after the start of the State's fiscal year 1976-77, which begins July 1, 1976. A special Town Meeting is being called, to be held at the Bear River Grange Hall, Sept. 23, at 7 p. m. Also discussed at the meeting was the possibility of the Town raising two to four units of State Aid Funds at the Annual Town meeting next March, for a Special State Aid Project at Sunday River, beginning at the Newry-Bethel town line. A special fund of $13,930. is available for this project, providing the Town appropriates either two or four units of State Aid Funds. Two units would mean an appropriation by the Town of $1,066. Four units would be $2,132. This would be matched by the State two to one, plus the 40% bonus on the joint fund.

Appropriation of the two units would mean a total fund of $18,407.20, while the four units, or $2,132., would give a total fund of $22,884.40 available for the project. The section of highway to be reconstructed is in a swamp area and is subject to flooding at times. In addition to the $22,844.40, if the Town appropriates the four units, the paving is done by the State and is not charged to the job. Only the request for two units of additional funds to complete the job now in progress will be voted on at the Special Town Meeting. Voting on funds for the special project will be done at the regular meeting next March.

The Mother's Club met Monday evening at the Raymond Foster School with 14 members present. Several topics were discussed and suggestions for future meetings made. Birthday wishes were extended to Beatrice Lowell, Mary Tripp and Louise Learned. The next meeting will be in the form of a Halloween Party. The date to be announced later.

BILL COHEN

From Congress

During my month - long travels throughout Maine during the August Congressional recess, I was able to meet and talk with hundreds of residents of our State. While I heard many opinions and points of view expressed during my conversations, one subject that came up again and again wherever I went was the devastating impact government regulation and the depressed economy are having on small businesses throughout Maine.

So often when we think of business interests in our State, we think of a few great industries with large capital holdings and huge work forces. But the fact of the matter is that 99% of all businesses in Maine are small businesses. From the independent fishermen who work our coastal waters, to the potato farmers and lumbermen of Aroostook County, to the small store owners in our larger towns—Maine depends on its small businessmen to provide the jobs and economic activity the State needs to survive.

Small businessmen are the bulwark of the national economy. Nationwide, 8.8 million small businesses provide over 50% of all employment, almost 45% of the gross national product, and they account for over 50% of wholesale receipts and 65% of total retail sales. These companies need free competition and a steady flow of capital to permit the innovation and growth needed to stimulate the economy.

The trouble is that it is getting harder and harder these days for small businessmen in our State or anywhere else to survive. They are being squeezed out, not only by larger companies but by over regulation by the Federal government, which all too often stifles the free enterprise system it is supposed to protect.

I am cosponsor of legislation now pending in the House of Representatives which is intended to relieve some of the burden on small businesses and larger businesses. The Jobs Creation Act, as it is called, is intended to encourage increased business investment throughout our economy to revitalize the private sector and, even more importantly, to create new jobs.

As drafted, the proposed act would encourage savings and investment by individual citizens and small businessmen by allowing an income tax exemption of up to $2,000 for a married couple filing a joint return for qualified savings and investment earnings from American corporations during the tax year. It would assist families trying to maintain small farms or businesses by increasing the state tax exemption to $200,000 for such family operations.

The bill would increase the investment tax credit to 15% and make it permanent. And it would amend the normal corporate tax rate and increase the corporate surtax exemption, including provisions for reduced taxes for small business. Finally, it would provide for employee stock ownership plan financing, giving the work force a bigger stake in the productivity and profits of corporations.

There can be no new prosperity —and no new jobs in the private sector — without increased investment in this country. During the 1960's, the U. S. had the worst record of capital investment among the major industrialized nations of the Free World. Productivity and overall economic growth were, as a result, also among the lowest.

This bill, with its simple but sensible approach to promoting investment and savings, can provide the boost small businesses need to get going again. Not an open-ended Federal hand out, this program can stimulate home construction and plant expansion, encourage major new equipment purchases, assure an increase in real purchasing power in the work force, and help assure continuity of family businesses and farming operations. And, in the process, it can create thousands of new jobs which in turn bolster productivity and spending throughout the economy.

This legislation, which has already attracted the support of more than 80 Congressmen, is not a cure-all, but it can begin the much - needed revitalization of small business to Maine and the Nation. I will be laboring hard for its passage into law during this session of Congress.

DONALD MAILLOUX

Donald M. Mailloux, who over came virtual blindness to become recognized as one of Maine's most outstanding teachers, died at his home in Blue Hill Thursday, Sept. 14, 1975.

Plagued by advancing blindness since an early age, Mailloux was honored in 1967 as Maine Teacher of the Year. He taught school for 26 years, serving as principal at high schools in Andover, Penobscot and Strong. He later taught science at Piscataquis Community High School in Guilford and then for seven years at Crosby High School in Belfast. In 1971 he moved to the Ellsworth area to serve as director of the Maine Teachers Association's regional service office.

In spite of the affliction which left him all but totally blind for the last ten years of his life, Mailloux was highly regarded around the state as a high school ski and track coach.

He was born Oct 11, 1923, in Needham, Mass., son of Ralph and Kathryn (Milm) Mailloux. He was a member of Blazing Star Masonic Lodge of Rumford; a member of the Maine Teachers and National Educational Association; a member of the Citizens Committee for Rehabilitation of Visual Handicap; was active in eye-care services; taught school in Maine for 26 years; coached skiing and track for many years. He was named teacher of the year for 1967.

He is survived by his widow, Lucy Herrick Mailloux of Blue Hill; three sons, Bruce of Hampden; Malcolm of Portland; Randolph of Spokane, Wash.; and two brothers, Kenneth of Trenton, N. J.; Melvin of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

NEW MAINE ROAD ATLAS READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

A new edition of the Maine Road Atlas is off the press and ready for distribution by the Maine Department of Transportation. All principal roads have been updated since the last issue in 1973.

The larger edition of the Atlas, which measures 18½ by 24½ inches, contains 98 pages of maps covering all 16 counties, plus other maps, charts and tables. The number of sheets to cover a county varies from one for the smaller counties to as many as nine for Aroostook.

A smaller version of the atlas contains the same array of maps and information on smaller size sheets and measures 10½ by 16½ inches.

Individual county maps are drawn in large scale and show all public highways as well as such features as private roads, homes, farms, rivers, lakes, mountains, airports, parks and nearly 100 other details from bird sanctuaries to industrial plants.

Included in the atlas are hundreds of large scale maps of congested areas where buildings are too close together to fit on the regular county sheets.

The 1975 Maine General Highway Atlas can be purchased by writing the Maine Department of Transportation, Division of Special Services, State House, Augusta, Maine 04330. The cost per copy of either the large or small version of the atlas is $6.00.

M. G. R. A. DIRECTORS VOTE SUPPORT OF ROAD BOND ISSUE

The Board of Directors of the Maine Good Roads Association recently voted unanimously to actively support a $13.6 million bond issue which Maine voters will be asked to approve in referendum on Tuesday, Nov. 4.

The Directors of the 1,000 member Association affirmed that "the rapid deterioration of Maine's roads and bridges, the number of jobs at stake, the possible loss of millions of dollars of Federal tax monies Maine highway users have already sent to Washington, and the possibility that Maine will have no road program for at least the next two years if the bond is not approved, all combine to make this the most important highway bond issue request ever to be placed before Maine citizens," according to Elbert M. Prince, president of the Association.

Prince reported that the bond issue will provide more than 80% of the state funds required for a two-year program of improving Maine's roads and bridges. "This is the funding for the two-year program requested and signed by the Governor and approved by the 107th Legislature. Without it, there will be virtually no road and bridge improvement program in Maine for at least two years."

Prince added that the jobs of at least 5,000 Maine workers are directly tied to passage of the bond issue "and the jobs of thousands more directly and indirectly tied to the road program are in real jeopardy if the bond issue fails. In addition, many Maine companies will be out of business if this funding for a vital and basic road and bridge improvement program fails to obtain the approval of Maine's electorate."

Meeting during the Association's annual convention at the Treadway-Samoset Resort, Rockport, the Directors determined that the majority of the 105 road and bridge projects which the bond issue would help to fund are overwhelmingly safety oriented projects which reach into every county in Maine.

Prince stated that "even with the bond issue, the road and bridge improvement program for the next two years in Maine is at least 25% less than what has been spent during the previous three bienniums, and with inflation in the asphalt, cement and steel industries, the work that actually will be accomplished with this limited road and bridge improvement budget is effectively reduced by nearly 50%."

From the standpoint of safety, Prince pointed out that during the calendar years 1973 and 1974, more than 90% of Maine's fatal accidents were on other than Interstate-type roads. "The hazardous curves, narrow bridge approaches and deteriorating surfaces of these roads are precisely what this bond issue is all about—improving and making safer the roads and bridges over which Maine motorists and school bus drivers travel every day."

BETHEL BICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE MET AUG. 27

The Bethel Bicentennial Committee met on Aug. 27 at the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason house. Chairman Robert Keniston spoke on the success of the concert which netted nearly $50 in donations. Stanley Howe, who was elected treasurer of the committee, reported that the historical society in cooperation with the Bethel Bicentennial Committee will sponsor films featuring Alistair Cooke's "America" series focusing on those which deal with the period of the American Revolution. Mr. Howe also indicated that the treasury of the committee should be allied with the town in order to assure non-profit status for tax purposes.

Chairman Keniston appointed the following committees to develop the three areas of thematic coverage: Festival, E. M. Quinn, John Willard Jr., John Gasser, Carolyn Brooks, Sarah Stevens, Paul McGuire, Ned Hastings; Heritage, Virginia Kelly, Mary Newcomb, Margaret Joy Tibbetts, Alden Kennett, Geraldine Howe, Peter Haines, Edith Eddy, Nancy Morrill; Horizon, Phyllis Dock, Donald Eddy, Cathy Newell, Denise Brown. These individuals are only a nucleus. Many, many people are needed in all projects. The Bicentennial Committee will be contacting as many people as possible to assist in the observance. CORPORATE THIRD QUARTER INCOME TAX DUE SEPT. 15

Many Maine corporations must make their third quarterly installment payment of their 1975 estimated income tax no later than Sept. 15. Corporations which operate on a calendar year basis for tax purposes are those which are affected.

"These payments, accompanied by Form 503, 'Federal Tax Deposit, Corporation Income Taxes,' are deposited in authorized commercial banks or Federal Reserve Banks," said John J. Jennings, IRS District Director.

"The deposits should be large enough to cover ¾ of the 1975 estimated tax," Jennings said. The estimated tax and the amount of each installment can be computed on a Form 1120-W, which is a worksheet for computing corporation estimated income tax. This form is not filed with the IRS, but retained in the corporation's records.

Forms 1120-W and IRS Publication 542, "Corporations and the Federal Income Tax," are available free from the Augusta IRS District office.

Taxpayers in the Augusta area can contact the IRS by calling 622-3761. Persons in outlying areas may call toll free 1-800-452-8750.
